I Know Who Holds Tomorrow (IKWHT) was a great book, in which the story line was well written. IKWHT was more realistic than any love story I've read in some time. Madison's character was exactly how most women respond to professional husbands. Zachary was a true friend and his character indicated exactly how dependable/reliable friends should be. Each character had story lines that made you

A fatal car accident sets the stage for a series of revelations in I Know Who Holds Tomorrow by Blackboard bestselling author Francis Ray. Just after her husband's death, popular talk show host Madison Reed discovers that he had a mistress, who was also killed in the accident. The deceased's baby girl is an orphan now, and Madison finds herself pressured by her husband's best friend to adopt the child. Will she learn to accept the baby and love again? Ray's plot is far-fetched, but he
