Nowhere Else on Earth by Josephine Humphreys - Goodreads

Nowhere else on earth was a very confronting book mainly because it's all about choosing the oath you want and deciding what's best for you in the future. It touched on subjects such as friendship, love, family and growing up. It was very emotional towards the end and I would love to give a few spoilers but I'm not going to ruin this book. So all in all a very touching and scary book.

Nowhere Else on Earth by Josephine Humphreys - Interview ...

Humphreys speaks excitedly about the arduous but joyful task of writing her new novel, Nowhere Else on Earth. "The new book is almost a total change for me, in terms of subject, method -- everything's different," Humphreys says. "Before this book, I used to say that my ideas for a story began with a vague feeling that I wanted to follow. In my first three books, writing was a process of

The 'Nowhere Else on Earth' place is a spread out swampy area, 'Scuffletown' along the Lumbee River in Robeson County in North Carolina. The time is near the end of the Civil War. The people are real as the author noted in the lineage of the families. They are English speaking but are a mixed race which the government tries to label, but they are their own people. 'We knew' as the narrator
