Lauri Lebo's "The Devil in Dover"

Lauri Lebo, a small-town reporter who covered the trial, knows not just the legal case and science, but the people on all sides of the divisive battle. In "The Devil in Dover", Lebo traces the compelling backstory of this pivotal case described by some as a perfect storm of religious intolerance, First Amendment violations, and an assault on American science education.

Review of Lauri Lebo's "The Devil in Dover"

Several of my fellow bloggers at the Panda's Thumb have been talking about journalist Lauri Lebo's new book, The Devil in Dover. There's about five who say that they are in various stages of writing reviews to be blogged here, there, or published in the mainstream media. And they all, to a man (yes, all of them are male), love it. About ten days ago, Lauri Lebo even gave me a
