The Raven Queen is the unaligned D&D deity of death, fate and winter. While some believe that she killed a long standing fixture of D&D just so that the authors of 4e could replace him with their 'Mary Sue', it is quite probable that she was influenced by and/or based off the Celtic goddess of death, battle, strife and sovereignty, the Morrigan.

MY BOOKS: The Raven Queen is a stand-alone story about the great Irish mythic Queen Maeve. It based on the ancient Celtic myths, and set around 100 BC in Ireland. Its plot and some characters are interwoven with The Swan Maiden, a novel about the maiden Deirdre of the Sorrows - the ancient Irish "Helen of Troy".
