The Taste of Sorrow by Jude Morgan - Goodreads
The Taste of Sorrow tells a familiar story, that of the Brontë sisters' childhood, rise to fame, and premature deaths, but Morgan manages to make this oft-told story seem fresh.

The Taste of Sorrow by Jude Morgan | Book review | Books ...

The Taste of Sorrow enters into dialogue with many voices. Morgan chooses a discreetly quiet, understated and subtle style, pensive rather than passionate, shifting seamlessly among a varied cast.

The Taste of Sorrow by Jude Morgan - things mean a lot

The Taste of Sorrow is a historical novel that retells the lives of the Brontë sisters, from their early childhoods until shortly after Charlotte's wedding. As some of you might remember, earlier this year I read and fell head over heels in love with Morgan's Passion, which is about the lives

Tiny Library: The Taste of Sorrow by Jude Morgan

The Taste of Sorrow by Jude Morgan If you pressed me to choose, I would say that the Brontës are my favourite classic authors. I love Jane Austen for her wit, the Russian masters for their epic tales and Stoker for his gothic horror, but the Brontës are just something special.
