James Parnell enjoys arguing with a book which asks all the right questions.

The Verdict: Did Labour Change Britain? by Polly Toynbee

Toynbee and Walker followed the Labour government from 1997 to 2010 with a series of books, and this one tries to give a verdict on the government as a whole. Naturally it's contentious. Although writing from the left of politics, they are by no means uncritical. There are some interesting insights and some equally interesting blind spots in their analysis.
