The White Linen Nurse by Eleanor Hallowell Abbott
The first thing is the title: the White Linen Nurse is only a white linen nurse for half an hour. The book opens with the White Linen Nurse (a.k.a. Rae Malgregor, although she's referred to as "the white linen nurse" throughout) having an existential crisis in her room on the last day of nursing college. Her roommates tell her why they wanted to be nurses, which makes the whole segment clunky and awkward. Rae, Zillah and Helene have all
