Charles Yu is not for everybody. I've read both How to Survive in a Science Fictional Universe and now Third Class Superhero, and his style can put people off. The relentless interiority of the voice, plus the experimentation with form and meta-narrative, is just too much for people looking for a more conventional immersion in character and plot. I understand and appreciate this-- its not by Charles Yu ISBN: 0156030810 Third Class Superhero might be the most straightforward story in this collection. Which is odd only because it's mostly about Moisture Man (yeah, about as impressive as he sounds) and how probably good people wind up doing not so good things in the quest to do good.

Third Class Superhero | reading notes
