Review #7: Eating the Dinosaur by Chuck Klosterman
Through a Glass Blindly: This one is about voyeurism. Klosterman talks about being about to see a woman in a neighbouring apartment through her window, and how she would be able to do the same. He never saw anything creepy or wrong, and enjoyed just seeing her doing everyday things. He had no desire to create some sort of story for her. I thought he probably should have bought some drapes, but

Book Review: Eating the Dinosaur by Chuck Klosterman ...

Through a Glass, Blindly is about people watching. The Passion of the Garth is an amazing take on what happens when people reinvent themselves and Going Nowhere and Getting There Never is a great look into the meaning of the road trip. ABBA 1, World 0 is an amazing look into what happens when an artist is content with their work. It Will Shock You How Much It Never
