Twilight of the U-Boats Kindle Edition From the first shot fired by Nazi U-boats to their final humiliation in 1945 Edwards takes the reader through Admiral Donetz boats years long effort to cut Great Britton's life line with America. The struggle between the vessels attempting to beat the U-boats was a cruel and brutal affair and that is conveyed in spades by author Edwards. Read more Edwards' Twilight of the U-Boat is a book without much of a purpose. It has a split personality. Its intended purpose is to give a history of the turning point of the war but its style and thesis are flawed.
