Prineas has a knack for strong plot lines with loads of action-always a good thing for middle-grade readers. She develops the alternative world well, and Fer is a sympathetic and strong female. She develops the alternative world well, and Fer is a sympathetic and strong female.

Book Review: Winterling by Sarah Prineas

Winterling, the first book I've read from Sarah Prineas, is a familiar melange of standard fantasy tropes. That is, the orphaned protagonist, who is gifted with exceptional magical powers, who must fulfill her birthright and be the One Who Will Save Us All and RETURN SUMMER TO NARNIA! Which is to say,
